EVERY LANDMARK HAS VISITORS

VERY FEW HAVE RESIDENTS

The Tower of London.
The Empire State Building.
The Sydney Opera House.

Every one of them a stunning
achievement of architecture, recognised the world over as city-defining landmarks.

A soaring, curved tower that captures both light and imagination.
An icon for the next era.

For a privileged few this landmark will be home.

Welcome home to
One Barangaroo.

CROWN RESIDENCES

THE SECRET TO SUCCESS

IS KNOWING
WHEN TO STOP

Sydney's most stunning tower soars 275 metres into the azure skies with a limited edition of only 82* residences.

The tower rises above a magnificent collection of restaurants, terraces, pools, private gaming salons, a ballroom, cafés and bars. Moving further skyward, six stars of luxurious hotel comfort and privacy welcome guests.

The highest reaches of the structure, those with the most dramatic views of the bridge, the Opera House and the harbour, are reserved for the residences.

You, 81* others like you and absolutely no-one else.

CROWN RESIDENCES

START WITH THE WORLD'S

MOST DESIRABLE LOCATION

The parcel of land we began with was one of the most sought-after locations in living memory.
In the city, on the water, by the park.
Unequaled and, quite literally,
never to be repeated.

From this starting point, the brief for One Barangaroo became incredibly simple: to create the best the world has seen.

WILKINSONEYRE

The city that resisted change for so long is now living proof that great architecture can transform even the most loved metropolis into something that inspires the world. From the banks of the Thames to the glittering cities of China and the wildly inspiring forms of Singapore's Gardens by The Bay, WilkinsonEyre revel in the challenge of creating completely new forms that are destined to become permanent icons.

The lines between living, celebrating and entertaining have finally been erased. Homes now feel like resorts. Bars as sleek as grand ocean liners. Bathrooms that breathe like gardens. Amidst this reinvention of our interior world, the vision of Meyer Davis has emerged as the clearest, creating a celebration of luxury and style in our most important spaces. Spaces that we like to call home, wherever we find them.

In a climate as beautiful as Sydney, bathed in the warm breezes of the Pacific Ocean, we often extend our design aesthetic to outdoor spaces. No one has cultivated such a free-flowing yet uplifting approach to the outdoor domain as St Legere, in such opulent spaces as Bali's famed Ayana resort, to luxurious hotel landscapes in Singapore, China, Hong Kong and beyond.

WE ALL HARBOUR A LITTLE ENVY

While the icons of the world's most beautiful harbour city undoubtedly catch the eye, Sydneysiders know the little moments are the ones that leave the deepest impressions.

The serenity of dawn breaking over the Pacific. The majesty of ocean racing yachts under spinnaker. The beauty of a mid-autumn sunset. The pure joy of midnight fireworks heralding a new year of pleasure and opportunity.

Take a seat. Raise a glass. Smile.

All of it is yours to enjoy.

CROWN RESIDENCES

Just as every song has its own melody, every residence in One Barangaroo has its own layout, design and aspect. This is partly a function of WilkinsonEyre's architectural vision, a uniquely curved form that creates a subtle variation in floorplan and aspect on each and every floor as one travels upwards through the building.

It is also a function of our insistence that the team at Meyer Davis embrace this twisting form and create a unique interior layout and design for each of the 82* private residences in the tower.

Your home
will be unlike any other.
By design.

SPACE

Every residence in One Barangaroo is beyond generous in every dimension, from ceiling height to storage capacity. We have simply refused to let the fact that we are building a tall and elegant tower influence the interior dimensions of these residences. Such a compromise is beneath us, just as we believe it would be beneath you.

The heart of the home.

Meyer Davis have ensured these beautifully-appointed kitchens feature a stunning island counter unit with natural stone bench tops and backsplashes. The waterfall end design offers both ample preparation space and comfortable seating.

The kitchens in your residence at One Barangaroo are designed to perform as well as they look, with Wolf cooking appliances, range hoods, dishwashers and Sub-Zero refrigerators and freezers integrated seamlessly into the design.

The built-in Sub-Zero wine refrigeration provides perfect temperature control for your in-house cellaring requirements.

No detail has been overlooked in what is commonly referred to as 'the heart of the home', with the kitchens being reviewed for function and specification by award-winning chef Guillaume Brahim.

DESIGNED IN COLLABORATION WITH

GUILLAUME

Beautiful, yes, but also beautifully functional.

We understand that your residence is for living, equally at home for quiet meals as for memorable dinner parties, so we invited one of Australia's most acclaimed chefs, Guillaume Brahimi, to help design the kitchen spaces within the 82 luxury residences in One Barangaroo. The addition of premium appliance providers Sub-Zero and Wolf to the Crown-Brahimi collaboration is the first time these giants of the hospitality industry have come together on a residential design, and is testament to the quality and attention to detail found at One Barangaroo.

In the words of Guillaume himself:

“The kitchen is now considered a design showpiece – a focal point within the modern home. While aesthetics are important, the kitchen also needs to be highly functional. Architects, designers and ultimately home owners choose Sub-Zero and Wolf because of the performance, custom integration and design flexibility of the products.”

WOKE UP ON THE

EDGE OF THE PACIFIC

Sydney has long been one of the most visually appealing cities in the world. A wave of investment in infrastructure and public culture has created an urban lifestyle to match.

Many commentators have remarked upon the “Manhattanisation” of Australia’s premier city: luxury apartments, a plethora of new dining and retail, light rail, laneways and entertainment districts, hotels and theatres, arts and cultural programming are now all woven into the fabric of the CBD.

The city has come of age, a playground worthy of your time and attention.

CROWN RESIDENCES

WELCOME TO THE FAMILY

The concept of a residence with all the services of a hotel makes complete sense: in-room dining, butler service, concierge, security, laundry, parking, cleaning and maintenance are all taken care of.

When Crown began as one of Australia's leading independent hoteliers, the depth of talent and experience in the hospitality industry was good, but not yet exceptional. To ensure a style and consistency of service to match the best hotels in the world, we created our own training and education programs. Those programs now make up Australia's largest and most prestigious independent hospitality and hotel management institution, and have become the absolute benchmark for the industry in the Southern Hemisphere.

The people who design and deliver excellence within this institution are the people whose job it will be to make your residence your home. It is their profession, it is their passion and it is their calling.

CROWN RESIDENCES

CHOOSE YOUR NEIGHBOURS WISELY

WITH JUST 82* PRIVATE RESIDENCES, WE APOLOGISE IN ADVANCE FOR OUR
INABILITY TO CATER TO EVERYONE.

Then again, you are not 'everyone'.

The owners and developers of One Barangaroo have taken the opportunity to craft a series of private residences that they themselves desire to call home.

The incredibly limited nature of this opportunity is well documented: an international design process, endless scrutiny and appraisal by both government and community, fierce competition, technical ambition and our own exacting standards mean that in any other realm, this is a structure that would not normally exist.

And yet, it does.

With the financial backing of the Crown Resorts Group, the support of the city and the financial momentum of the hotel and gaming operation below, we find ourselves in the most fortunate situation of realising something many people believed to be almost impossible.

We may not see a set of homes with the stature of One Barangaroo again in our lifetimes.

We encourage you to investigate the opportunity before it passes.

Finally, we place the entire structure on the last remaining harbourfront plot in the heart of the city of Sydney, framing the most incredible views of the most photographed harbour on the planet.

We call it Crown Residences, and our address is One Barangaroo.
