LUXURY CITY CENTRE
TWO, THREE & FOUR BEDROOM HOMES

Galliard Homes

Over the years, Galliard Homes has become a byword for regeneration, rejuvenation and reinvention. Since the business was founded over 30 years ago, we have built our reputation on acquiring sites in areas where there was little or no development – but great potential.

As a result of our forward-looking site acquisition policies and judicious identification of areas with outstanding possibilities, our investors have shared in our good fortune and experienced huge capital growth. Galliard locales, once unused, under-developed and with limited possibilities, have proved to be outstanding locations in which to own property, to live and to experience.

Wavensmere Homes

Wavensmere Homes' passion for authenticity is what makes us unique.

Over the past seventeen years, we have specialised in urban regeneration and unique placemaking renovation projects in extraordinary sites and developments that have allowed us to reinstate classic architecture back to its former glory.

Due to our rich and experienced background in traditional craftsmanship, we understand the importance of detail and quality. Our diverse team successfully restores, revives and transforms underutilised land into environments underpinned by their communities to create a sense of place for future generations.

Delivering Luxury Lifestyles

Wavensmere Homes and The Galliard Apsley Partnership are delighted to work together in a joint venture to develop Belgrave Village.

Belgrave Village in Birmingham delivers a wide variety of home choices for first-time buyers and families alike, offering purchasers the opportunity to enjoy all that this area has to offer.

Belgrave Village

Located off Belgrave Middleway, you will find a thriving community called Belgrave Village.

Occupying a site that had stood vacant for over 20 years, this development is an exciting contribution to Birmingham city centre.

Just moments away from Birmingham's thriving commercial centre, New Street Station and Grand Central shopping centre, Belgrave Village is a landmark development providing 438 city centre homes in a combination of one and two-bedroom apartments and two, three and four-bedroom houses.

Nestled amid stunning areas of gardens, parkland and shared open spaces, it'll be easy to forget you're so centrally located.

The Bright Future

A CITY OF TRANSFORMATION

Birmingham's framework of six economic growth zones will attract a £1.5 billion investment programme generating some 1.8 million square metres of new floor space and create around 50,000 new jobs.

By 2031, Birmingham will have undergone a transformational change that will see substantial economic growth furthering its dynamic presence on the international stage. The six economic zones provide the stimulus for clustering economic activity within high quality business environments, each accelerating the delivery of growth to benefit the city.

Birmingham is Growing. That's a Fact

- Today, Birmingham is a city of outstanding statistics with a regional economy of £102 billion. It is also a city setting an exceptional benchmark for a quality lifestyle – with the cost of living some 60% lower than in London.
- Birmingham is the youngest city in Europe with the under 30's accounting for nearly 46% of its population.
- With one of the UK's top 20 universities at the heart of the city, there are 84,000 students currently living and studying in Birmingham's eight universities. Each drawn to the city's vibrancy, affordability and culture.
- The Big City Plan is a 20-year City Centre Masterplan that sees a contribution of £2.1 billion to the economy each year, creating over 50,000 new jobs, 65,000 square metres of new and improved public spaces, 28 kilometres of enhanced walking and cycling routes, 5,000 new homes with new leisure and recreational facilities to attract more families.
- JLL research suggests that rental prices in Birmingham could increase by 12% over the next five years – the highest level of growth in the country. Rental yields are forecasted to average 6.56%.
- A 1 hour commute to London, Manchester, Leeds, Sheffield, York. Curzon Street Station, the new Phase 1 terminus of HS2 (High Speed 2) is just 10 minutes from Belgrave Village. Passengers will enjoy an incredible 45 minutes commute to London Euston and just 41 minutes to Manchester Piccadilly. Property investors are also set to reap the benefits of HS2 with increases to property values around the area.

The Heartbeat of Culture

The second largest city in the UK, Birmingham is the beating heart of the country.

A hotbed of culture, this is a city that is packed with history, arts and creativity. Its rich industrial past can be felt throughout the area with its world-class architecture and intricate network of canals.

The Birmingham Museum & Art Gallery (BMAG), located on Chamberlain Square, is home to 40 galleries where you can explore significant art, social history, archaeology and ethnography.

Birmingham city centre is home to many world class theatre production venues including The Alexandra, The Old Rep and Birmingham Hippodrome. Other cultural institutions include The Royal Birmingham Society of Artists, The Midlands Art Centre and Birmingham's Symphony Hall. All of which host some of the world's finest programme of performances.

Just five minutes from New Street Station, you'll find Birmingham's Chinese Quarter. A cornucopia of Chinese, Japanese and Korean eateries and food stores line its colourful, vibrant streets, all centred around the area's landmark stone pagoda.

A close-up photograph of purple flowers, likely Allium, with a soft, out-of-focus background. The flowers are in sharp focus in the foreground, showing their intricate structure and vibrant purple color. The background is a blurred mix of green and purple, suggesting a garden or park setting.

Parks & Leisure

This city is actually greener than you might think. The Greater Birmingham area has protected over 8,000 acres of some of the finest parkland in the UK.

Maintaining these pockets of the natural environment offers a huge benefit to the urban area creating exciting places to socialise, relax and interact with nature a stone's throw from the bustle of city living.

Birmingham Botanical Gardens

Birmingham Botanical Gardens and Glasshouses covers 15 glorious landscaped gardens that is home to over 7,000 plants, shrubs and trees. Located in Edgbaston, the tranquil setting also has four glasshouses flourished with tropical rainforest and rich vegetation.

Cannon Hill Park

Located just outside Birmingham city centre, Cannon Hill Park offers 80 acres of parkland as well as 120 acres of conservation and woodland. Cannon Hill Park is packed with adventure for the family from rides and games to arts and entertainment all year round.

Eastside City Park

Covering 6.75 acres in the heart of the city, Eastside City Park is Birmingham's first new urban park in 130 years. The park doubles the amount of open space in the city offering 300 trees, grass, shrubs, water and more for the community to use and enjoy. It is the largest single piece of public realm in Birmingham city centre.

Sutton Park

Located in Sutton Coldfield, Sutton Park is a 2,400 acre National Nature Reserve that is one of Europe's largest urban parks. The stunning parkland offers open heathland, marshland and seven lakes, as well as a variety of plants and wildlife. The park also offers activities, cycle routes, nature and heritage trails and more.

Let's Talk Shop

Birmingham is a shopper's paradise. Whether you seek head turning chic or eye catching value it's all here.

With Selfridges, Marks & Spencer, Flannels, House of Fraser and Harvey Nichols all within easy walking distance of each other, it's no surprise that Birmingham is gaining a reputation as the region's premier location for retail therapy.

Selfridges & The Bullring

For those who love make-up, fragrances and the latest in skin and haircare products, the Selfridges Beauty Hall is a place of wonder. Favourites like MAC, Urban Decay, Chanel and YSL sit alongside high-end Japanese offerings from Suqqu and RMK as well as cult UK brand Charlotte Tilbury. There are products from around the world in the Beauty Workshop, and regular beauty events are held where you can shop over a glass of fizz.

The Mailbox

The Mailbox is a luxury shopping mall converted from a former Royal Mail sorting office. Inside you'll find premium labels for both men and women from the likes of Paul Smith and Gieves & Hawkes. Pop into the new concept Harvey Nichols, where you can either browse designer-named fashions or relax in one of the opulent personal shopping suites whilst a stylist does the hard work for you! You can also refuel at one of the canalside restaurants and bars or catch a movie in comfort on one of the Everyman Cinema's sofas.

Grand Central

Visit Grand Central for the ultimate shopping and dining experience at the likes of L'Occitane, MAC Cosmetics and more. Stop for a bite to eat at one of many pop up restaurants and market style stores from mouth watering tapas to on the go pizza. Grand Central is fast becoming the most popular place to visit in Birmingham city centre.

Eat, Drink & Be Merry

Birmingham's food and drink culture has also seen rapid expansion in recent years.

Whether you're a fanatical foodie out for fine dining or looking for a quick fix to carry on exploring, Birmingham is never out of options. The city is home to restaurants serving over 27 different cuisines from around the world, as well as a variety of cocktail bars. Birmingham is also very privileged to host five Michelin-starred restaurants right on its doorstep, in fact the city has more than any other UK city outside of London. Ranging from the high-profile Purnells the world-renowned Adams, the city boasts something for everyone's taste buds.

Highly recommended restaurants such as Dishoom, The Ivy and Tattu, all taking pride of place in the centre of Birmingham, have taken the city by storm in recent years.

By road

Birmingham is strategically located for motorway travel with the M5, M6, M40 and M42 all interconnecting in and around the city. The commute by car into London is around 116 miles, or just over 2 hours on average. Drive times across the Midlands are impressive with a typical journey time of 30 minutes to Coventry, 55 minutes to Leicester and 60 minutes to Nottingham.

By rail

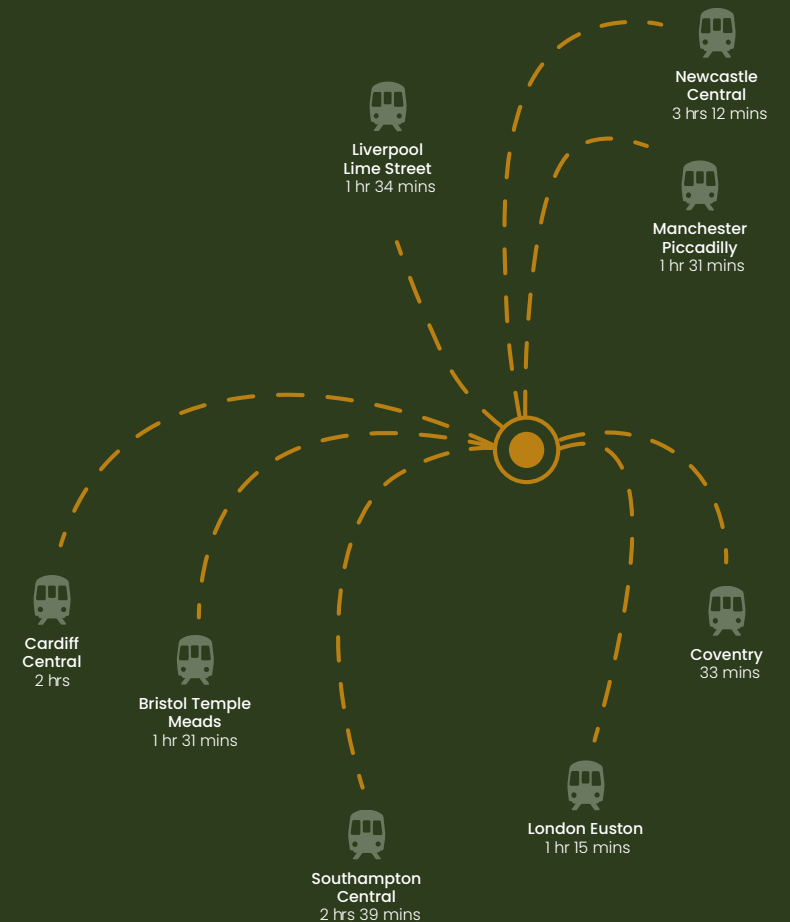

New Street, Snow Hill and Moor Street are the three main rail stations that provide a comprehensive network linking destinations across the UK. The £55 billion development of HS2 will slash current rail journey times to and from London by an anticipated 37 minutes and from Leeds by 50 minutes.

By air

Birmingham International Airport is just 20 minutes from the city centre, enabling domestic and international air travel with ease and convenience. Destinations cover Europe, the Middle East, the Indian sub-continent, North America and the Caribbean.

By tram

West Midlands Metro links Wolverhampton St. George's to the city centre. The ongoing £1.3 billion extension will increase the number of stations to 80 connecting Wolverhampton, Birmingham, North Solihull, the NEC, HS2 and Birmingham Airport.
