Downsland House

Built in 1899, Downsland House is a beautiful country house which sits in the middle of its 21 acre plot. The house is approached via a sweeping, 'in and out' gravel driveway offering fine views of the grounds. You are welcomed by a grand entrance hall which leads onto the formal reception rooms including the drawing room, dining room and sitting room. Each of these rooms have wonderfully high ceilings, views over the grounds and period fireplaces.

There is an excellent family kitchen with an AGA and a large larder, utility and boot room, perfect for everyday family life.

An impressive staircase rises to the first floor which has a wonderful open landing which leads onto the principal bedroom and en suite bathroom. One of the adjoining bedrooms is used as a dressing room currently. There are a further five bedrooms on this floor, one with an en suite bathroom and two family bathrooms. One of these bedrooms is currently used as a study and usefully has access via a staircase so it would make a lovely guest bedroom or staff accommodation. The second floor has two further bedrooms and a useful WC.
