A select development in a prime location

Tiltdown Gardens is a select development of just a few three and four bedroom homes located next to the grounds of Tiltdown House, on the edge of the market town of Dursley.

PIPER

Perfectly placed for country life & commuting

Cam and Dursley

The village of Cam and the neighbouring town of Dursley are situated on the edge of the Cotswolds, almost equidistant between Gloucester and Bristol.

Located on the Cotswold Way and surrounded by hills, the area offers a wealth of lovely walks and breathtaking views. The historic market town of Dursley retains its delightful 18th century market hall and offers variety of small shops, cafes and pubs

The local area has a good selection of local amenities including a Tesco Superstore, a convenience store and a pharmacy. The development is just half a mile from the Cam Everlands Primary School, which was rated “Good” by Ofsted in their latest report.

Tiltdown Gardens is just a short walk from Stinchcombe Hill, an exceptional Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty. Stinchcombe Hill is also home to the Historic Stinchcombe Hill Golf Course. The Cam Sports Club, which is home to the Cam cricket, tennis and football clubs is also nearby.

Located almost equidistant from junctions 13 and 14 of the M5 motorway, Tiltdown Gardens is conveniently located for travel both north and south. Cam and Dursley Station has regular trains to Bristol and Gloucester.

Around and about

With so much to do locally and such idyllic countryside right on the doorstep, you may never want to tear yourself away from Tiltdown Gardens. But if you do, the development is under two miles from the Cam and Dursley Railway Station and around eight miles from the M5 motorway.

Tiltdown Gardens is just a short drive from Slimbridge Wetland Centre on the banks of the River Severn. The first of its kind to be opened in the country back in 1946, this the world renowned reserve for water birds offers the perfect place for a day out for the whole family.

Stroud is only eleven miles away. Full of independent shops, cafés and galleries and home to one of the best Farmers’ Markets in the country, it also offers a full range of supermarkets.

The city of Bristol is just over half an hour away by train or car. From Brunel and the SS Great Britain and the Clifton Suspension bridge, to Banksy or the Bristol Lido, there is something to interest everyone.

Bristol Airport, which offers regular flights to dozens of destinations throughout Europe, is just over an hour away by car.
