The House

Dating back to circa 1870 Plough Farm has not been available for sale for over 50 years, so presents a wonderful opportunity.

On the ground floor off of the entrance hall is the kitchen/breakfast room, and to the right is the dual aspect dining room, the living room with woodburner and double doors leading out to the terrace and gardens, and an office. Also on this floor is a utility room and shower room; and there is a cellar underneath the living room.

On the first floor is the principal bedroom with walk in dressing room, two further double bedrooms, a single bedroom and the bathroom. All of the rooms enjoy uninterrupted views over the surrounding countryside.

Gardens, Grounds & Outbuildings

The property is approached onto a private driveway where there is plentiful parking.

The property has a beautiful country garden, that has been lovingly cultivated by the current owner, comprising formal lawns, mature trees and a breeze hut. There are currently 12 wild peacocks who have enjoyed the grounds as their home, and who would love the opportunity to stay!

There is a single storey stone outbuilding which is attached to the farmhouse, it currently houses the oil tank but if this were updated and moved, it could be converted subject to obtaining the necessary planning consents.

There is a comprehensive selection of outbuildings, including a single garage, large barn, former chicken shed and former beef shed; all of which have most recently been used for storage.

There is also a large barn split into two units, which have recently been rented out to individuals/companies.

There are paddocks available by separate negotiation, lot 2 which is approximately 1.34 acres and lot 3 which approximately 3.70 acres.
