Location

The City of Bath has been described as one of England’s most beautiful places to visit with its largely intact Georgian landscape. Situated in Somerset within the Southwest of England, Bath is one of the 21 heritage cities in England and became a World Heritage Site in 1987.

Bath benefits from two Universities and is home to more than 6,000 businesses employing approximately 50,000 people. Service sector employment accounts for around 80% of local jobs and important economic sectors include Education and Health, Retail, Tourism and Leisure and Business and Professional Services.

A thriving City that appeals to both domestic and overseas tourism who visit to enjoy the historic architecture, theatres, museums and its many attractions. The Windsor Townhouse is located on one of the most sought after addresses in the centre of Bath, Great Pulteney Street. The street is rich in Georgian architecture and is a popular destination for tourists seeking to explore the city. Situated within close proximity to many of the city’s historic tourist attractions to include The Recreation Ground (home of Bath Rugby), Bath Abbey and the Thermae Bath Spa, along with its vibrant and cosmopolitan café scene, Michelin starred restaurants and boutique shops.

Bath Spa Railway Station is situated within half a mile of the property and provides regular services to Bristol Temple Meads and London Paddington with journey times of 15 minutes and one hour 15 minutes respectively, with Bristol International airport within 18 miles.

| Location | Distance (miles) | Approximate Travel Time |
|-----------------|------------------|-------------------------|
| Bristol | 13 miles | 35 minutes |
| Bristol Airport | 19 miles | 45 minutes |
| Cheltenham | 54 miles | 1 hour 10 minutes |
| Oxford | 72 miles | 1 hour 30 minutes |
| Exeter | 108 miles | 1 hour 50 minutes |
| London | 115 miles | 2 hours 20 minutes |

Pulteney Bridge

GREAT PULTENEY STREET

Occupying a magnificent position within one of the most historic and architecturally finest Georgian streets in Bath, the discerning buyer is offered the rare opportunity to join such illustrious names as William Wilberforce, Napoleon III and Admiral Earl Howe in owning property in Great Pulteney Street.

The city centre is within approximately 0.1 miles past the fountain at Laura Place and across the famous Pulteney Bridge. The Recreation Ground - the home ground of Bath Rugby Club - is located at the end of William Street.

The carefully manicured gardens of Henrietta Park can be enjoyed, as can the larger and more formal Sydney Gardens at the end of Great Pulteney Street. From Sydney Gardens, attractive walks and cycle rides may be enjoyed along the Kennet and Avon Canal giving access to beautiful open countryside. The wide range of amenities including extensive shopping, museum theatre and art galleries are available in the city centre, whilst Waitrose is within approx. 0.2 miles on foot. Several well-regarded schools, both private and state are available within the area.

Guest Accommodation

Until recently the owners lived on site with their son and daughter and operate the business as a lifestyle operation, utilising several bedrooms for themselves. Revenue from the accounts is derived from only 11 en suite bedrooms as family members did reside on the whole of the Garden Floor, and a Deluxe Double and Classic Double on the lower ground floor.

The property benefits from versatile accommodation and should the new owner decide to continue trading as boutique guest house, and not have the requirement for owners' accommodation, the property could easily trade with 15 en suite guest bedrooms.

Below is a breakdown of the room categories:

| Room Type | Number of Rooms |
|-----------------------------|-----------------|
| Classic Double | 5 |
| Four-Poster | 2 |
| Superior Double (Twin Room) | 2 |
| Deluxe Double (Triple Room) | 3 |
| Single | 1 |
| Garden Room | 1 |
| Family Room | 1 |
| Total | 15 |

The Opportunity

A superb opportunity to purchase a substantial Grade I Listed property arranged over six floors on one of Europe's most prestigious boulevards.

The property benefits from both C1 (Hotel) and C3 (Residential) use and currently operates as a successful boutique guest house. The current owners purchased the property in 2007 as a hotel and under their ownership have continued to invest into the fabric of the building to provide good quality accommodation to meet the demands of the many visitors to the World Heritage City of Bath.

The business trades all year-round attracting guests from across the globe and provides the perfect base for guests to explore Bath and the wider region.

The Windsor Townhouse will appeal to a range of buyer profiles, to include first time entrants to the hotel market, existing hotel owners seeking additional bedrooms in the City and from residential buyers seeking a grand residence.
