Location

The pretty Cotswold village of Daglingworth sits a short drive from the county town of Cirencester and within striking distance of Cheltenham. Communication links are excellent with a fast road network via the A417 that provides access to the M5 (J11A) and M4 (J15). The nearest mainline station is at Kemble being 9 miles away (London Paddington 80 minutes) or more regular fast trains go from Swindon 18 miles (London Paddington 60 minutes).

There are excellent schools across the region, notably Rendcomb College, Cheltenham Ladies, Cheltenham

College, Wycliffe College, Beaudesert Park, Prior Park and Hatherop Castle are all within easy reach

Local activities include theatres in Cheltenham, Bath and Oxford, golf at Cirencester Golf Club, Lillybrook Golf Club at Charlton Kings and Naunton Down. Polo at Cirencester Park, Edgeworth and Beaufort. Racing at Cheltenham, Newbury and Stratford-upon-Avon. The area has exceptional walking and riding on the network of footpaths and bridleways across the surrounding Cotswold AONB.

The Dower House

The Dower House is a charming period Cotswold stone house sitting at the head of a drive that comes off the village lane over a bridge and bringing you to the front of the house. The gardens and grounds surround the house on all sides with mature trees, Cotswold stone walls and well laid out gardens in distinct areas and all of different character.

The house has evolved and grown over time with the most recent additions being an indoor swimming pool, tennis court and a link to the adjacent building with first floor accommodation, the home office and cottage.

The cottage is approached from a separate driveway and has its own good sized garden. The home office and cottage could be incorporated into the main house if necessary and subject to the necessary consents.
