Location

Livingston is one of Scotland's premier locations for industrial, distribution, and logistics operations, strategically positioned in the heart of the Central Belt.

The town serves as the administrative centre for West Lothian and is a well-established base for national and international occupiers.

The site is located one of Livingston's most prominent and long-established industrial areas, situated to the south-west of the town centre. The estate benefits from excellent connectivity to the Scottish motorway network, with the M8 providing direct access to Edinburgh (c.16 miles east) and Glasgow (c.32 miles west).

The area is home to a strong mix of well-known manufacturing, logistics, and distribution operators, including Schuh, Royal Mail, DHL/Nisa, Glen Turner Distillery, SAICA and Tesco, among others.

The property is accessed directly from Caputhall Road via Deans Road, offering straightforward access for HGVs and efficient links to the wider road network.
