

Gordon Road, Claygate

A stunning Victorian home built circa 1890.

Presented in immaculate condition throughout and perfectly located for Claygate village and station.

The property was fully remodelled, insulated and extended in 2012 with design input from renowned architect Jonathan Tuckey. The works included a new clay tile roof, mahogany sash windows, new wiring, plumbing and heating.

The rear garden has a westerly aspect and benefits from a terrace running the full width of the property, a water feature, shed, log store and hidden area for a trampoline.

Claygate high street offers an excellent mix of village shops including a florist, baker, butcher and fishmonger. The high street also has the train station, which provides direct trains to London Waterloo.

The larger town of Esher is also conveniently located which has a wider selection of shops and restaurants including a Waitrose. The towns of Kingston upon Thames and Guildford are nearby providing a wide selection of high street names and department stores.

Schooling in the area is superb with Rowan, Claygate Infants, Milbourne Lodge, Shrewsbury House and Claremont Fan Court School nearby, the ACS Cobham International School, Danes Hill in Oxshott and Reeds in Cobham also offering an excellent choice of schools.

The A3 is conveniently located providing access to London and the M25.
