Location

Mill Farm cottage is nestled amidst the picturesque landscapes between The Quantocks and Exmoor. Whether by car, public transport, bicycle, or on foot, there are abundant opportunities nearby to explore. The charming village of Sampford Brett is just minutes away and offers a well utilized village hall.

A mere 5-minute drive leads to the seaside town and tranquil fishing haven of Watchet, while continuing westward unveils the charming coastal town of Minehead, just 20 minutes away by car. Minehead offers a bustling harbour, sandy beaches and several shops, cafes and restaurants.

The gorgeous medieval village of Dunster which features the beautiful castle is only 15 minutes away and is definitely worth a visit!

To the east of the property lies the historic market town Taunton, only a 30 minute journey, known for its rich heritage, vibrant culture, and beautiful surroundings.

Mill Farm Cottage

Nestled in the tranquil countryside, this delightful semi-detached property offers a perfect blend of historical charm and modern comforts. Dating back to 1664, with a tasteful extension added in 1941, the property offers an abundance of character and charm throughout.

Mill Farm Cottage offers several reception rooms including a charming sitting room with a cosy log burner, a well-appointed kitchen featuring all usual appliances, and an open plan dining room with doors to outside.

Upstairs there are three generously sized double bedrooms and a family bathroom. There is also an expansive loft space, which provides generous proportions and offers endless possibilities. Whether that is an extra bedroom, home gym or studio, the loft space provides a blank canvas.

One of the most enchanting features of this home is its stunning views of the Quantock Hills and beyond, offering a picturesque backdrop that enhances the sense of tranquility and natural beauty.

In summary, this rural semi-detached property offers a unique opportunity to own a piece of history while enjoying modern comforts and breathtaking surroundings. With its timeless charm, spacious interiors, and enchanting outdoor spaces, it offers a truly idyllic lifestyle.
