The location

Within walking distance, and less than a mile from Fox Barn Farm, is the small cove of Polkerris, a stunning sandy beach and considered to be one of Cornwall's finest, combining an idyllic sandy cove and stunning coastline with first-class water sports facilities, a popular pub and beachside café/shop. The beach is situated on the luscious Gribbin Peninsula, a National Trust owned, dramatic green headland on the Polperro Heritage Coast between Par and Fowey, and where the author Daphne du Maurier called home. Only a 10 minute walk away you will find Par beach and the connection on to the SW coastal path.

Fowey is about 2.5 miles from Fox Barn and this gorgeous waterside town is a popular and bustling community, with a wonderful range of shops, cafes, pubs, restaurants, and hotels. Fowey, like many waterside towns on the south coast, is popular amongst sailors, with its sheltered anchorages and glorious sailing waters, the town is home to two sailing clubs and the famous annual Fowey Regatta. Fowey occupies a picturesque setting, being surrounded by miles of outstanding coast and countryside.

Commuting links are good with the A30 and A38 around 10 miles away. Par, Lostwithiel and St Austell train stations provide services to London Paddington and Cornwall airport is 20 miles away offering both domestic and international flights.

The property

Fox Farm Barn is a beautiful, detached stone-built house with adjoining guest annexe, both of which have been creatively refurbished (including complete re-wiring, re-plumbing and a whole new heating system) and extended by the current owners to an exceptionally high standard. Most properties have a wow factor, but Fox Barn Farm seems to have more than one! Whether it be the stunning contemporary extension to the kitchen/living room, or the stunning gardens, or the sublime setting and views.

The welcoming entrance hall leads into the large open plan kitchen/living areas, which is not only a stand out feature of this house, but clearly the heart and soul. The kitchen is fitted in a farmhouse style with exposed stone work to one wall, and appliances include a gas range cooker, a dishwasher and an double fronted fridge/freezer. French doors open to the terrace and the views across the garden and beyond are glorious.

The living/dining room is open plan to the kitchen and features wall to wall glazed doors, which open onto the wrap around terrace and gardens beyond. Two further reception rooms include a study, and a snug/tv room with wood-burning stove set in a fire recess.

The first floor offers the main bedroom, with fitted wardrobes, an en suite shower room, and superb rural views, and a further two double bedrooms, again both with wonderful views, and a family bathroom with bath and shower.
