39 ST VINCENT PLACE

Behind a magnificent Grade B listed façade dating back to 1870, 39 St Vincent Place provides a selection of recently refurbished and well located office accommodation with a Commissionaire manned reception, passenger lift and private parking.

Occupying a prime position in the heart of Glasgow's central business district and near to the city's prime retail area of Buchanan Street, St Vincent Place links St Vincent Street and George Square and is one of Glasgow's premier business addresses. Complemented by strong transport connections via Queen Street and Central Train Station, as well as Buchanan Street Underground.

Situated on the Fourth Floor South, with a net internal area spanning 2,234 sq ft (208 sq m).

A TOUCH OF GRANDEUR

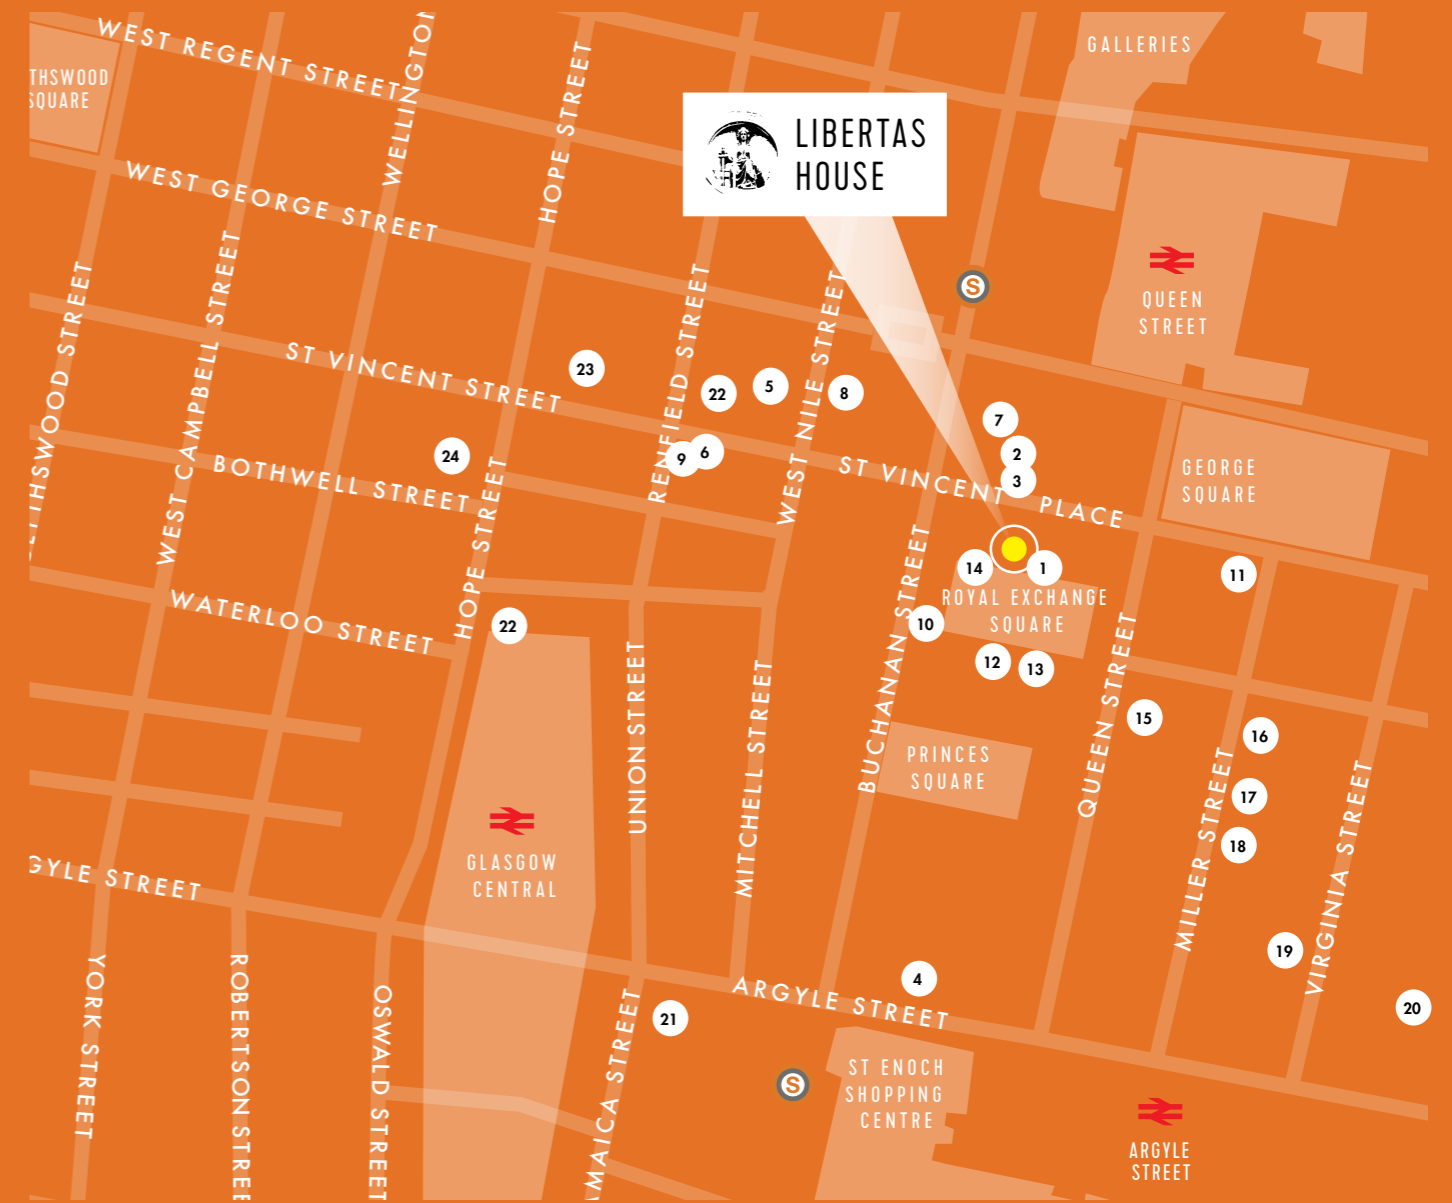

The striking masonry façade of Libertas House was carved by the noted Scottish sculptor William Mossman II between 1870 and 1873 and drew from the well-known Latin motto 'Libertas Justitia Veritas' – meaning 'Freedom, Justice, Truth'. Mossman included statues of Veritas and Justitia within the original façade, which were removed in 1903 for reasons unknown.

The current refurbishment seeks to restore Mossman's original motif. Emblems of Veritas and Justitia are inlaid into the reception walls in fine metal, while the renaming of the building to Libertas House finally completes the design almost 150 years after they were first imagined.

In addition to the impressive facade, notable improvements have been implemented in the common areas of the building. Occupiers benefit from a high-quality entrance with renovated lift landings, including male and female toilets on each floor. There is secure basement car parking with dedicated cycle racks and upgraded changing / dry room facilities as well as showers and lockers, contributing to a modern and convenient environment.

WORK & PLAY

Libertas House sits in the heart of Glasgow and benefits from several close transport connections, with Buchanan Street underground station sitting a mere 1 minute walk away and Glasgow Central reachable in less than 5 minutes. In addition to Buchanan Street, the best shopping street outside of London, the local area is filled with a wealth of eating, drinking and retail opportunities including Zhima, the Anchor line, Atlantic Brassiere and Ralph & Finns in addition to being on the doorstep of The Merchant City.
