The property

The Croft is a charming home, wonderfully situated moments away from Guildford town as well as The Mount and provides the incoming purchasers with a wonderful opportunity to upgrade and extend subject to the usual planning consents. The property benefits from a substantial sized loft as well as side access which could allow the opportunity of a separate annexe to the rear of the garden (subject to planning).

The ground floor is in its original layout with a charming family room to the front with a lovely bay window, dining room leading onto the kitchen and sitting room with double doors leading to the rear garden.

The first floor comprises four bedrooms, family bathroom with a separate cloakroom. Two of the main bedrooms have attractive bay windows, one with views over Guildford town and the other the attractive rear garden.

The property could potentially be immediately available and the sellers are open to negotiations with regard to the contents.

Gardens and grounds

The Croft has the added, yet rare benefit of a single garage.

A particular feature of the property is the beautiful, southeast facing, landscaped rear garden that has a lovely courtyard terrace, with steps up to the main garden area. This is laid mainly to lawn but enjoys a high degree of privacy thanks to mature planting and screening.

At the rear of the garden is a gate to a footpath which leads to The Mount and North Downs Way beyond, providing endless open space and hours of country walks.

Location

Mountside is a well known residential street in the heart of Guildford. Within 1000m of the High Street and both of Guildford's stations. Guildford has a frequent service to London Waterloo, with journey times from about 35 minutes. The A3 provides a direct route to London and the south coast, linking at Wisley with the M25 for the airport and the national motorway network. There is a good selection of schools in the area, including County School, St. Nicholas, Holy Trinity, The Royal Grammar School, Guildford High School, Tormead and Lanesborough. Guildford High Street is known for its pretty traditional feel with views towards the surrounding hills. There are a number of independent shops and restaurants with House of Fraser, Waitrose and a Marks and Spencer department store.

Recreational opportunities include theatres, a multiplex cinema and the G Live entertainment venue. Guildford lies on the northern edge of the Surrey Hills Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty, offering miles of walking, cycling and riding country. (All mileages and journey times are approximate)

The town is home to Surrey University, The University of Law and there are also several hospitals, including The Royal Surrey, Mount Alvernia and the Nuffield which are within walking distance of Mountside.
