Ford Farm

Ford Farm is a massively attractive Grade II Listed family home that has been modified and extended by our clients to provide amazing accommodation spread over three floors. The accommodation comprises a generous reception hall, a grand sitting room, a delightful family room from which there are steps down to the modern kitchen/dining/family room which is extensively glazed and provides delightful views of the rest of the house, the gardens as well as the surrounding countryside. In addition, there is a cloak/laundry room, a shower room and a utility/boot room.

On the first floor there is a central sitting room/library as well as three bedrooms and en suite bath/shower room and a family bath/shower room. Stairs lead up to the fourth bedroom and loft (which lends itself to being converted to further accommodation, if required, subject to the relevant consents being obtained), on the second floor.
