Situation

Pinewood House is situated on the edge of Wormley close to the hamlet of Sandhills, within an Area of Outstanding Natural beauty. A lot of the area is made up of National Trust land with an array of attractive cottages and houses as well as the renowned King Edward's School and Barrow Hills. A huge benefit is having Witley station nearby which is within a short walk offering a good train service to London Waterloo in about 55 minutes.

More extensive facilities are available in both Godalming and Guildford to the north, and to the south is the ever-popular town of Haslemere.

The A3 at Milford provides access to the national motorway networks, Heathrow, and Gatwick airports. The countryside around is a paradise for walking, biking and equestrian pursuits. The M25, via the A3, gives access to both Heathrow and Gatwick airports, and the national motorway network.

There are excellent schooling facilities including Charterhouse and Priorsfield in Godalming; Lanesborough, Guildford High School for Girls and the Royal Grammar School in Guildford, St Catherines in Bramley and Cranleigh.

The property

Pinewood House comprises a substantial portion of this imposing country house, built in the 1840's for James Clarke Hook a leading Victorian artist. In the late 19th Century, the property was owned by the 1st Viscount Knutsford. The house was skilfully converted into separate dwellings in the 1950s.

Purchased by our clients in 2007 the property underwent significant refurbishment, including new roofs and tile hanging; heating system and plumbing, and partial rewiring.

Partial reconfiguration of the ground floor created a larger kitchen with hand built and painted units. The house offers light and bright accommodation over three floors with the principal rooms enjoying incredible views over the Sussex Weald towards Blackdown and the South Downs.

Upon entering the property, you are greeted by an impressive reception hall and a mahogany carved staircase leading up to a galleried first floor landing. On the left you have a large double aspect dining room and separate drawing room both with original Victorian features, including ornate ceiling cornices and roses. The bespoke kitchen includes an orangery and a fully fitted galley that extends to the back of the house. The galley includes a second oven to compliment the AGA.

On the first floor there are two large bedrooms, an office, bathroom and separate cloakroom. The principal bedroom has a luxury en suite bathroom and walk-in wardrobe. The second floor includes a further three spacious bedrooms and bathroom. On the same level you walk through to the artist studio, a double aspect room with a barrel-vaulted ceiling from where a stairway leads down to the kitchen.

Approximate Gross Internal Floor Area

Garden and grounds

Approached from Brook Road down a long driveway (owned by Pinewood House) to gates which open into a gravelled driveway with parking for numerous cars by the barn style garage.

The gardens have been beautifully laid out with terracing, flat lawned areas, banks of lavender and a platform for a hot tub. Further down the garden is a smart Alitex greenhouse and a less formal area, perfect for a football pitch. In all the grounds extend to approximately 1.3 acres.

Services

We are advised by our clients that the property has mains water, electricity, gas and septic tank drainage.

Directions (Postcode: GU8 5UD)

From Guildford proceed south on the A3 for approximately 8 miles and leave at the Milford junction. Follow the signs due south on the A283 passing through the centre of Witley. Having passed King Edward's School to your right, take the first turning right into Brook Road. Follow this for 0.4 miles and the entrance to Pinewood House can be found on the left-hand side.
