The Property

The house is approached via a gravel driveway with a mature shrub border. A Crittall style front door opens into study with a high ceiling, a built-in storage cupboard and a mullion window with a front aspect providing natural light. The kitchen/breakfast room has double doors looking out to the rear garden. The adjoining conservatory has ceramic tiled flooring, a glazed door to the front and glazed double door to the rear. The reception room is an attractive bright room with two large mullion windows with a bay to the front, and a fireplace. There is also a shower room which has plumbing for a washing machine.

Upstairs, there are three bedrooms and a family bathroom, the master bedroom has an en-suite.

Gardens and Grounds

To the front of the property there is an enclosed garden laid to lawn with high hedging and panelled fencing providing privacy. A gravel driveway provides off road parking and access to the detached garage, with light and power. The private rear garden is mainly laid to lawn and mature flower beds and enclosed by panel fencing. There is a paved patio to the rear of the conservatory and kitchen ideal for alfresco dining. There is a second patio and a timber shed. The detached brick-built garage has double doors to the front and windows to the side, light and power.

Situation

Peppard Lane is a bridleway, providing access to open countryside and is accessed from Harpsden Way along with residential roads such as Berkshire Road and Belle Vue Road. Henley has a wide selection of shops, including a Waitrose supermarket; there are boutiques, a cinema, theatre, excellent pubs and restaurants, a bustling market every Thursday and good schools for all ages. The commuter is well provided for with the M4/M40 giving access to London, Heathrow, West Country and Midlands. Henley Station has links with London Paddington via Twyford 55 minutes including TfL Elizabeth Line.

River pursuits and the world-famous Royal Regatta. Henley Festival of Arts. Marina facilities at Harleyford and Wargrave. Henley Golf Club, Badgemore Park Golf Club. Superb walking and riding in the Chiltern Hills area of outstanding natural beauty. Henley Leisure Centre is located near Gillotts School and provides an indoor swimming pool, gym and exercise studios.
