This remarkable property, boasting approximately 2,627 sq. ft. of living space, features a dual aspect corner position, offering abundant natural light and a sense of spaciousness throughout its grandly proportioned rooms. The home's standout features include over the ground and first floor two expansive reception rooms, with a stylish kitchen on the ground floor and a study on the first.

Upstairs, the property offers a spacious principal bedroom with en suite, separate walk-in wardrobe and storage.

The lower ground floor includes two additional bedrooms, a separate bathroom, a practical utility room and ample cellar space, perfect for storage or a wine collection.

There is access to a patio area, adding to the property's appeal.

There is planning permission granted for Erection of mansard roof extension creating two additional bedrooms and bathroom which would add approximately an additional 360sqft. These works have been costed by a contractor, please contact us for further details or plans.
