Having been completely refurbished throughout, the open-plan lounge and kitchen area is designed for both relaxation and entertaining, featuring a sleek kitchen along one wall and direct access to a large private balcony that curves elegantly along the side of the building. The kitchen, designed with great attention to detail, boasts Poggenpohl cabinetry, a benchtop featuring a golden vein Persian quartzite surface, and a stunning onyx backsplash sourced from Iran, creating a luxurious and sophisticated atmosphere.

The principal bedroom includes built-in storage and direct access to a luxurious en-suite bathroom, while a second bathroom is conveniently located off the hallway. Throughout the apartment, dark chocolate herringbone floorboards add a warm and inviting tone, which is further complemented by carefully chosen wall paint that enhances the overall
