

Hyde Park Gate SW7

Hyde Park Gate is a magnificent house that is white stucco fronted and offers generous and flexible accommodation that is rarely seen in a house of this size.

The extensive structural work that has been carried out on the property has made a real difference and means that every floor has an overwhelming feeling of space.

The layout flows easily and is highly adaptable providing a large number of bedrooms and living space for any incoming family depending on how many of each they require.

In addition, the house has an exceptionally large 60ft drawing room. The house offers 3 outside spaces with a delightful lower ground floor patio garden at the rear, a generous first floor terrace and a terrace on the third floor.
