A STYLISH LOOK

Externally, Nine Bond Court impresses with its blend of bronze anodised-framed, floor-to-ceiling windows and subtle Baltic Brown granite accents, which set off the building's brickwork, allowing for pronounced reflections, which when combined with textures and contemporary materials, demonstrate the quality of this unique office building.

Internally, a fully glazed feature reception creates a bright and welcoming entrance for clients and reflects the contemporary and stylish approach that has been taken throughout. This is further enhanced by bespoke communal areas and open plan office floors rich in natural light, testimony that no stone has been left unturned.
