The Property

Description

A well laid out modern estate with good loading and car parking provision. The estate comprises eight units, built in the late 1980's, of steel portal frame construction, steel profiled elevations, roof sheeting and attractive brick part front and side elevations under mono-pitched roofs.

The ground floor benefits from 3 WC's, a shower room and a kitchen area. The ground floor undercroft area has a clear height of 3.12m and is a suitable space for additional offices, showroom, trade counter or low height storage space. There is an office mezzanine which has the following specification; suspended ceiling with integrated lighting, carpeted floor and perimeter trunking with partitioned office areas.
