Exceptional Location

1. Aerial view of Riverside Sunderland and City Centre
2. City Hall office scheme

Standing next to the Keel Line, City Hall is the headquarters of the City Council and also an accessible meeting place for local groups and organisations.

It is the access point for vital services including housing, employment and benefits. City Hall is the city's shop window, with facilities for civic events and a marketing suite to entertain prospective investors.

Its location in the heart of the city centre offers excellent access to all the main transport nodes with an array of high quality retail and leisure facilities on your doorstep.

Key Benefits

- Sunderland Central Station and two Metro Stations only 5 minutes' walk away
- At the heart of Riverside Sunderland's new Central Business District
- A short walk from the Retail and Leisure Core
- New Keel Crossing footbridge provides direct access to the Sheepfolds restaurant and leisure venue as well as the Stadium of Light and Sheepfolds residential development
- St Mary's Boulevard will be the Central Business District main street. It will be upgraded to create a stylish green boulevard, including a new urban square and open space

Sunderland. A forward thinking city

Sunderland's trajectory is undeniable. The city's transformation has been fuelled by recent investment of over £2 billion.

This commitment to growth is reshaping Sunderland into a dynamic, ever evolving hub, with Riverside Sunderland at its core.

With over £650m invested in the Riverside Sunderland project to date, it will provide 1 million sq ft of employment space, 10,000 new jobs, 1,000 new homes, 13 ha of high quality public realm and attract 2,500 new residents.

Sunderland's appeal is multifaceted. Home to prestigious brands like Ocado, Hays Travel, Just Eat, Barclays and the British Esports Federation, the city offers a thriving business environment supported by a skilled workforce.

Its strategic connectivity, including the Tyne and Wear Metro, direct rail links to London, access to 80+ destinations from Newcastle airport (a 40 minute drive from Sunderland), and excellent highways access coupled with advanced digital infrastructure, positions Sunderland as a highly accessible and forward-thinking city.

The city seamlessly blends a stunning coastline and high-quality greenspaces with a dynamic business community, attracting global organisations seeking growth opportunities. This combination of natural beauty and economic vitality, driven by substantial investment, reinforces Sunderland as a visionary city and a sought-after location to invest, live, work, and visit.

Riverside Sunderland offers excellent connectivity, including direct rail services to London. First class public transport links (bus, metro and rail) provide easy access to a large workforce.

Location

The Metro system connects Sunderland to the wider Tyne & Wear area. Sunderland City Centre is served by three Metro Stations and a main Railway Station, with direct services to London Kings Cross.

St Peter's and Sunderland Stations are within 5 minutes walk from City Hall and the main interchange at Park Lane is within easy walking distance via pedestrianised routes.

Regular bus services connect to key residential areas. Park Lane Interchange provides dozens of routes out of the city to local population centres as well as Durham, South Tyneside and Newcastle.

Newcastle International Airport is 16 miles from Sunderland and is accessed via the A1231 and A1 dual carriageways and the Metro. Newcastle International Airport offers direct flights to more than eighty destinations worldwide. Key destinations include the major hubs of Heathrow (60 mins flight time), Amsterdam (70 mins), Paris (85 mins) and Dubai (8hrs 40mins).

Sunderland offers easy car and bus access. Uncluttered roads enable employers to operate efficiently, drawing staff from a wide catchment area. Further enhancing this competitive advantage, large scale infrastructure investment is currently underway.
