CHRISTIAN BENSE

No. 60 CURZON

Originally the home of the famed Mirabelle restaurant, this iconic building has hosted many erudite figures over its illustrious history, maintaining an air of exclusivity and sophistication. Inspired by the Art Deco movement of the 1930s, the building stands out with its world-class architecture and thoughtfully designed interiors. Comprising 32 unique residences, ranging from spacious studios to luxurious penthouses, it offers the rare opportunity to experience life as a resident in this fashionable corner of Mayfair.

To showcase the elegance and essence of No. 60 Curzon, selected apartments have been styled by eminent interior designers to reflect their vision of refined urban living, highlighting what makes this residence and its surroundings truly special.

Apartment 1.7 has been thoughtfully designed by globally recognised designer, Christian Bense, blending the blank-slate thinking of his South African roots with a nod to the traditional homes and interiors of the UK. His philosophy begins with what's best for the home, layers in what's best for the client, and finishes with a style that serves both, creating spaces that are rational, timeless and sophisticated.

Apartment 1.7, designed by renowned Christian Bense, combines sophisticated elegance with a refined masculine edge. The open-plan kitchen, dining and living area creates a seamless space that feels both inviting and contemporary, an ideal sanctuary for London living. A generous principal bedroom and a beautifully tonal bathroom complete this remarkable home.

Throughout, carefully curated artworks, a palette of light and warm hues, and a rich mix of textures bring depth and character. The result is a space that feels distinctly modern, yet infused with subtle English charm.
