Location

The development offers a 24 hour concierge service, gym and secure underground parking. Parliament View is a stunning, glass-fronted building on the south side of Lambeth Bridge. Directly looking across towards the Houses of Parliament and the London Eye, the views from many of the apartments are incredible, especially at night. The modern, curvaceous architecture is cutting edge yet blends in with the varied surroundings.

The central location of Parliament View means that Westminster is only a short walk away with London's West End within minutes also. Vauxhall rail and underground station (zone 1, Victoria line) is within walking distance.
