A HANDSOME PERIOD BUILDING

An elegant five bedroom apartment on the third floor of a handsome period building overlooking Courtfield Gardens. This lateral home offers generous proportions, excellent natural light, and a layout suited to both entertaining and family life. The reception room features garden views and original parquet flooring, while the kitchen includes Brazilian marble worktops and modern integrated appliances. A separate dining room and utility area add practicality. The principal bedroom includes an en suite and storage, with four further bedrooms, a family bathroom, a shower room, and a guest WC. One bedroom is ideal as a home office.

Residents enjoy access to the private garden square, with South Kensington and Gloucester Road's amenities and transport links nearby. NB. Some images use CGI for illustrative purposes only.
