The property

Rosslyn offers a superb opportunity to create an exceptional, individually designed, large, contemporary family home set in substantial mature grounds. The property lies in an enviable position in the village of Welford-on-Avon, set back from the road. The sizeable existing house is double-glazed throughout, and the proposed accommodation approved by Stratford on Avon District Council planning permission reference 23/02552/FUL will successfully incorporate the traditional Edwardian architecture with a 21st century wrap around two-storey side and rear extension to provide a superb large kitchen/dining/family space to the rear with full height, large sliding doors allowing the accommodation to flow seamlessly onto the new paved terrace and garden. The house will benefit from a wealth of ground-floor reception space and six generous bedrooms, including a substantial primary suite and future-proof ground-floor bedroom suite.

Benefitting from Permitted Development approval ref 22/02332/LDP at the top of the garden is consent for the annexe and associated landscaping to house a home gym and a garden room with an office area and kitchenette, with large sliding glazed doors leading to the new paved terrace area with wonderful garden views, approached along a new path and will be privately situated and provide accommodation for a variety of uses to suit the new owner.

A particular feature of the property is the large mature, secluded garden featuring an array of attractive trees and planting, an orchard area and a pond providing a fantastic wildlife habitat which can be cultivated to the owner's desired style and taste.

The planning permission incorporates permission to widen the front drive, associated landscaping, and a new detached rear garden outbuilding garden store/garage. The mature front garden offers privacy and the ability to provide ample private parking with a new gated side entrance and hardstanding for additional parking and access to the rear garden.
