PROPERTY

The End House is a charming, detached property, situated in the rural, north Gloucestershire village of Mickleton, on the edge of the Cotswolds Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty. The property has been sympathetically refurbished in part by the current owners and effortlessly blends traditional character and charm with modern-day living.

The front door from the road opens to a delightful entrance hall with stairs rising to the first floor. Double doors on the right open to a spacious dining room with feature fireplace and a large window offering views to the drive, and double doors on the left open to a magnificent drawing room with a feature fireplace and glazed French doors opening to a secluded, walled patio area. The entrance hall continues to a characterful kitchen/breakfast room which benefits from tiled flooring, an extensive range of wall-mounted and base units, and a Rangemaster. This flows beneath an archway to a boot room, complete with built-in units, a sink, and French doors opening to the rear garden. A door from the kitchen opens to a bright and airy garden room benefiting from sliding glazed doors opening to the south-east facing patio, and further to a store with shelving.

The ground floor further extends to a separate wing with its own access from the driveway, comprising an entrance hall, spacious sitting room and shower room. This wing has the potential to be used as secondary accommodation, subject to obtaining the necessary planning consents, or as further living accommodation within the main house. The impressive principal bedroom is accessed via a staircase in the sitting room of the wing, comprising an array of fitted wardrobes, a spacious en suite bathroom and Velux windows.

Stairs from the entrance hall rise to the first-floor landing, which provides access to a modern family bathroom and three generous bedrooms, all of which offer different aspects of the beautiful walled garden and village beyond.

Stairs from the first-floor landing rise to a spacious fourth bedroom, benefiting from built-in cupboards, Velux windows, a dressing room and an en suite shower room.

OUTSIDE

Externally, the property is accessed by a wrought iron gate which opens to a private driveway with ample parking space for a number of cars.

The south-east facing walled garden to the rear is laid partly to lawn, with a large stone paved patio that provides an excellent outdoor entertaining space. The patio is accessed via the double doors in the drawing room, boot room, and sliding doors in the garden room. The beautiful garden provides privacy and seclusion, and offers a central pond, a variety of mature trees and shrubs and herbaceous borders that offer colour and interest throughout the year.

The garden further benefits from a brick outbuilding, comprising four stores, and has the potential to be converted to an alternative use, subject to obtaining the relevant planning consent.
