Families are well-catered for with a selection of highly regarded state, private, and grammar schools in the area. For commuters, the M40 (J15) is just 8 miles away, providing swift access to Birmingham, London, and the national motorway network.

Old Town is a perfect setting for those seeking a tranquil yet vibrant lifestyle, steeped in history and culture. The neighbourhood's classic homes, combined with its proximity to Stratford-upon-Avon's amenities and cultural offerings, make it one of the most desirable locations in the area.

The property

10 Holtom Street is a deceptively spacious semi-detached property located on a much sought after, quiet no-through road in Old Town, within walking distance of the town centre. The property was built in 1926 and sits in a conservation area. The flexible accommodation was extended several years ago and offers good accommodation for modern day living with four double bedrooms arranged over the first and second floors.

The ground floor features a welcoming entrance hall that leads to a generous living room, perfect for entertaining with a brick fireplace and staircase rising to the first floor. The country style kitchen features wooden units, a gas hob, double oven, fridge, freezer and dishwasher. Adjacent to the kitchen, the separate dining room boasts an abundance of natural light from a large roof lantern and French doors open to the garden. From the dining room, there is a study or small bedroom, guest cloakroom and a recently fitted shower room with boiler room leading off. The integral garage can also be accessed from the rear inner hallway.

Upstairs, the four double bedrooms provide plenty of space for family or guests, with the potential to create a home office on the second floor, which has lovely views of the surrounding area. The principal bedroom has a rear aspect, fitted wardrobes and an en suite shower room. Bedrooms two and three are both doubles and have built-in storage. There is a family bathroom which services the two bedrooms on the first floor and the second-floor bedroom.

The south-east facing garden is low maintenance and hard landscaped, with a large, decked area which is great for relaxing and entertaining. The pathway leading to the paved section allows for easy movement throughout the garden, while the shed tucked in the rear corner adds convenience for storage and gardening tools.

There is space for one car to park in the garage and remaining parking is permitted on-street. The garage has an up and over door and is partially used as a utility with fitted units and a sink.

Services
