The Property

Foden Lodge is a quintessential double-fronted Cotswold stone cottage in the heart of the highly sought-after village of Lower Oddington. Thought to date from the early 1700s, the front door leads through to a large sitting room/dining room. Particular features are the attractive Cotswold stone inglenook fireplaces that are situated at either end of this double-aspect room. To the rear of the cottage lies the kitchen with a range of units and a Belfast sink. A shower room can also be found on the ground floor, and the rear hall provides access to the terrace. On the first floor is the principal bedroom with a fitted wardrobe and a family bathroom. A further double bedroom can be found on the second floor with a large landing area, ideal for use as a home office/study area. Foden Lodge offers an ideal opportunity to place one's own mark on the cottage and will make a charming home.

The Grounds

The rear terrace is completely enclosed and surrounded by Cotswold stone walls and offers an ideal space for al fresco dining.
