Behind the private electric gates sits this stunning classical neo-Georgian detached house, built in 2019, which has been kept in pristine condition throughout. Finished to an exquisite specification, Burlington House is effortlessly stylish and offers first-class living in the highly sought-after private estate in Burwood Park.

Arranged over three floors, the accommodation offers everything one would expect for modern luxury family living. On entry, you are immediately struck with space and light. To the front, you have a large study and boot room. There is a stylish formal living and separate dining room to the rear, both leading out to the large garden. Four excellent sized en-suite double bedrooms located on the first floor, along with the substantial principal suite, with a walk-in wardrobe and en-suite. There are two further double bedrooms on the top floor with a family bathroom to serve. The impressive screening room/playroom is the perfect place to unwind and relax.

At the bottom of the garden is an AstroTurf 5-a-side football pitch.

The house is equipped with all the modern-day technology that one would expect, including underfloor heating throughout, air conditioning in the principal rooms, RAKO lighting, s1 Sonos music system throughout, and VELUX electric shutter blinds.
