

Ashford Road, Laleham

A stunning and recently refurbished home.

On entrance you are greeted with a double-height entrance hallway, immediately giving you a feeling of space. There are two large reception rooms flanking the house and a charming reception room to the front. The Thomas Howley kitchen is, as you would expect, absolutely stunning. The dining area in the kitchen is triple aspect with by-folding doors all around giving you the inside/outside living we all crave. There is a downstairs w/c equipped with a rain shower, steam room and direct access to the pool and hot tub. Situated in the pretty Thameside village of Laleham with its friendly community and within a few minutes stroll of this picturesque stretch of the River Thames, local shops and reputable public houses.

Guide price: £1,999,950

Tenure: Freehold

Local authority: Spelthorne Borough Council

The large principal suite is positioned on the first floor with a generous en suite and his and hers walk-in wardrobe. There are two further large double bedrooms with en suites and walk-in wardrobes and two further doubles, one with a walk-in wardrobe, that share a generous family bathroom. The utility is also sensibly positioned on the first floor.

The house sits on an acre and will soon be exceptionally private having had laurels planted around the boundary. There is a large heated swimming pool and terrace, which is accessed from every reception room to the rear of the house.

The house further benefits from a downstairs w/c, a double garage with electric doors, electric gates and substantial off-street parking.
