

The White House, Queen St, Twyford

The White House, Queen St, Twyford, Hampshire

Beautiful Grade II listed, Georgian house within the popular village of Twyford

Presented in beautiful decorative order, The White House sits on Queen Street, surrounded by similarly historic houses. The property itself marries charming period features such as sash windows and exposed beams, with sympathetically modern fittings. To the front of the house is a sitting room with a corner fireplace (with woodburner), and fitted shelves. Adjacent is the dining room with exposed beams, wood flooring and French windows to the terrace. The kitchen is a stylish and light room with pale grey units and a granite worktop with bar seating. There is plenty of room for a dining table, a lantern skylight and a door to the terrace. The remainder of the ground floor is made up of a snug/playroom, study, utility room and cloakroom. Upstairs, the main bedroom has a luxurious en suite bathroom. There are two further first floor bedrooms and a family bathroom, whilst on the second floor is another double bedroom and a study area within the converted loft.

The garden extends from the rear of the property with mature shrub and flower borders and a south-facing brick terrace. Immediately to the back of the house is a private stone terrace, ideal for entertaining.
