

LIVING IN KNIGHTSBRIDGE

Knight Frank

Home to some of the world's most prestigious venues, shops, hotels and restaurants, Knightsbridge is one of London's most exclusive residential areas.

Knightsbridge sits to the west of Sloane Street and south of Hyde Park. The area is characterised by beautiful garden squares, red brick mansion blocks and white stucco-fronted houses and apartments. Knightsbridge's proximity to acres of royal parkland and a wealth of high-end shops, grand hotels and foreign embassies has secured its worldwide popularity, lending a cosmopolitan vibe that is enjoyed by its thriving international community. The area attracts undergraduates, postgraduates and mature students and is especially popular with those studying at Imperial College London. Victoria station is within walking distance for passengers travelling by train to Gatwick Airport.

Best known for:

Harrods and Harvey Nichols department stores, museums, and the development One Hyde Park.

Boroughs:

The Royal Borough of Kensington and Chelsea, The City of Westminster

Social and cultural attractions:

Knightsbridge benefits from having some exceptional hotels such as Carlton Tower, Sheraton Park Tower, and The Mandarin Oriental, which is home to the world-renowned restaurant Dinner by Heston Blumenthal. Places of interest nearby include the V&A, Natural History Museum, Science Museum, Royal Albert Hall and Cadogan Hall.

Sport and leisure facilities:

Hyde Park, London's largest royal park, is within walking distance and offers everything from boating and tennis courts to the Serpentine Gallery. The area is also home to a number of fitness centres and spas.

Getting around:

Knightsbridge, Sloane Square, South Kensington

Our favourite places:

Zafferano, a Michelin-starred Italian restaurant; Zuma, for contemporary Japanese cuisine; and Dinner by Heston Blumenthal at The Mandarin Oriental.

“ THE AREA IS ESPECIALLY POPULAR WITH THOSE STUDYING AT IMPERIAL COLLEGE LONDON. ”
