

New Homes Buyers Guide

Together, we can help you make your move

The new homes buying process explained

South West New Homes
To help on your journey of buying a New Home, we've broken down the steps involved. If you would like to discuss your borrowing options with one of our specialist New Homes team, please do email southwestresdev@knightfrank.com. We would be delighted to help.

Responsibilities Who can help you?

Knight Frank
Knight Frank will present the development and sales materials to you, arrange viewings, advise and help with property reservations. From reservation to completion, we are the ongoing point of contact and are happy to help with any queries during the build period.

Developer
Once we receive an update on progress of the build and completion dates from the developer, we will then be able to update you. The developer is also responsible for the relevant completion paperwork, warranties, snagging, and delivery of the completed properties.

Solicitor/Conveyancer
The solicitor/conveyancer will manage and be responsible for all legal conveyancing elements of the purchase, including exchange of contracts and completion within the relevant timelines.

Mortgage Broker
They will advise and arrange your mortgage on your new property and can also advise on any necessary insurance.

Your partners in property

All information is correct at the time of going to print. Knight Frank is the trading name of Knight Frank LLP. Knight Frank LLP is a limited liability partnership registered in England and Wales with registered number OC305934. Our registered office is at 55 Baker Street, London W1U 8AN where you may look at a list of members' names. If we use the term 'partner' when referring to one of our representatives, that person will either be a member, employee, worker or consultant of Knight Frank LLP and not a partner in a partnership. If you do not want us to contact you further about our services then please contact us by either calling 020 3544 0692, email to marketing.help@knightfrank.com or post to our UK Residential Marketing Manager at our registered office (above) providing your name and address.
